Jack Meadows

Born in India and brought up in the UK. Joined the RAFVR in 1937. In 1946 he joined the RAuxAF. He was CO of 600 Squadron, but left when his civilian job at Unilever sent him to South Africa for eight years. He retired after 35 years with Unilever in 1981, and settled in Canada. \(^\text{15}\)

John (Jamie) Morrison 19/05/1951

The first black member of the RAuxAF. \(^\text{16}\) Joined the RAFVR after the war and trained with several regular squadrons. Whenever he trained with a regular squadron they completed some forms and sent them to his unit. This went on for about two years, till after a pay parade the pay officer saw Jamie and said that he had never seen Jamie at a pay parade. Jamie answered that he never attended the pay parade as there was no money ever paid to him. The officer got a bit upset and said "I have seen you work very hard over the last two years, why have you not been paid?" Morrison said that he didn’t know. The officer shook his head and walked away. Some time later Jamie was called to the Adjutant’s office where he was told that a rather strange mistake had been made. There was no way that he could get a refund of the money that should have been paid, but Morrison should think about leaving the RAFVR and join the RAuxAF instead, so he filled the forms in and joined and started in 600 Squadron. \(^\text{17}\)

Born on April 12th 1914 and educated at Aysgarth and Stowe, he worked in the family timber business in Sunderland after leaving school. In 1934 he was commissioned into the AAF, and begun flying with 607 Squadron. He was awarded both the DFC and the DSO in 1940, before the Battle of Britain had begun. Taken prisoner in 1941, he was taken to Stalag Luft III, where he took up the role as escape officer. He famously organised the “Wooden Horse” outbreak in which three men escaped to Sweden and England. He organised other breakouts, but stopped after the Great Escape in 1944 when 50 escapees were shot on Hitler’s orders. He was appointed OBE in 1945 for his escape work in the camps. He was demobbed in 1946, and immediately rejoined 607 Squadron Royal Auxiliary Air Force as its Commanding Officer. He also rejoined the family timber business. He died on March 3rd 2000, aged 85.
